Question #1: How come no one has contacted me about my class reunion?

Answer: Crawford High School and the Crawford/Alumni Foundation do not put on reunions. Nor has either ever been responsible for any class reunion. All class reunions are the responsibility of each class... all classes are on their own when it comes to reunions! It's up to each individual class and its members to put them on and form class reunion committees for event development.

Question #2: Where can I find out if my class is having a reunion?

Answer: Crawford grads have 3 direct sources for class reunion information.

- The Will C. Crawford High School Foundation Website Reunion Page at: www.crawfordhighschoolfoundation.com is the most comprehensive source. From the Home page of the Foundation website, go to the Reunions Page and scroll on the menu for the class you want. *Data is limited to ONLY information that has been provided by each class reunion group... no data... no information. The Foundation is a non-profit corporation with an office located at the Crawford High campus in the Old Administration Building. Individual Board Members of the Foundation can (or may) give some advice and recommendations... but it doesn't fund nor puts forth labor into reunions. The Alumni Association Committee of Crawford Foundation has a data base and can be contacted at: crawfordalumni@yahoo.com for inquiries.
- The Classmates.com commercial website at: www.classmates.com is another very good source. However, you must become a member to access the information. A limited membership is free. For viewing posted information on various class reunions you have 2 options, but you need to start first from the Crawford High School community location... not Will C. Crawford High School. *Note there are 2 other Crawford High School in the United States. The Crawford High School in San Diego on the Classmates site is what you want... it has a tab called "reunion" and a tab called "communities" both may list some information. After clicking on the "communities" tab...look at the Message Board for any updates about class reunions.

● Reunion and class information for Crawford grads pre-1975 look at the independent website of John Fry Production at: <http://www.johnfry.com/pages/chs.html> and click on “Reunions and Get Togethers” tab. You can also contact John Fry at: mail@johnfry.com for inquiries. This site is very helpful and has a lot of information. John Fry Productions also produces a hard copy quarterly Crawford Alumni newsletter.
